

Time for Light

Screaming Trees

Where are you walking to
There's a trapdoor straight ahead falling through
What are you gonna do, gonna do Visions of us on the wall
Sisters spellbound in the hall
House is dark and everybody's happy Close my eyes to the dawn
There's a wheel of destruction coming on
It's all we never said, ever said
Visions of us on the wall
Sisters spellbound in the hall
House is dark and everybody's happy The time for light is over
Darkness drops you in deep
These are things we shouldn't let go, girl
Secrets that you should know
But it's alright - yes, it's alright
Oh come on, it's alright
Didn't I say that it's alright
As far as you know it's alright Where are you walking now
Fate just set a trap coming down
Our heads are filled
With all the things we used to hear
Everything never said, never said
Visions of us on the wall
Sisters spellbound in the hall
House is dark and everybody's happy
(Fuck the house...)
