

He About To Lose Me

Britney Spears

I'm touching hands with someone seriously beautiful
I feel it burning and I know I'm standing far too close
I'm telling lies and if it shows I see that he don't care
I know he wants to take me home and get on out of here I got someone waiting at home
He says he in love but lately I just don't know
He don't see me or make me feel hot
Banging in the club with all of my ladies and he don't know that He about to lose, about to lose,
about to lose me
He about to lose me
He about to lose, about to lose, about to lose me
He about to lose me
I feel my body is in focus as he touches me
And I should go but I can't overcome this chemistry
He pulls me close before he whispers something in my ear
He says he wants to take me home and get me out of here I got someone waiting at home
He says he in love but lately I just don't know
He don't see me or make me feel hot
Banging in the club with all of my ladies and he don't know that He about to lose, about to lose,
about to lose me
He about to lose me
He about to lose, about to lose, about to lose me
He about to lose me Someone by the bar keeps looking at us dancing
I see him staring at me, I see what he wants to be Someone by the bar keeps looking at us dancing
I gotta, I gotta go
He don't know that
He about to lose, about to lose, about to lose me
He about to lose me
He about to lose, about to lose, about to lose me
He about to lose me
He about to lose, about to lose, about to lose me
He about to lose me
He about to lose, about to lose, about to lose me
He about to lose me

I'm touching hands with someone seriously beautiful
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>