Let's go down now
Into the darkness of your thoughts
Hurry up now
We're waiting for us to fall(I fall to pieces now) I fall to pieces now
A broken mirror
(I fall to pieces) in your lifeThe silence in black and white
Falling forward as she walks toward the lightI know
I'm outside of your window with my radio
I sleep with one eye open so I can
(I sleep with one eye open) see you breathing
I follow your chest home
(So I can see you breathing) until I
I can see you
I can hear you breathe in, exhaleThe silence in black and whiteI know
I'm outside of your window with my radio
I know
I'm outside of your window with my radioI'm outside of your window with my radio
(So I can see you breathing)
I'm outside of your window with my radio
(So I can see you breathing, one eye open)
I'm outside of your window with my radio
(So I can see you breathing)
I'm outside of your window with my radio
You are the only station
You play the song I know
You are the song I know
