Look Homeward Angel

Cliff Richard

Look homeward, angelTell me what you seeDo the folks I used to know remember me?Look homeward, angelEye my lady fairDoes she dream about the love we used to share?So she'll know how very much I miss her Angel, while she's dreaming, won't you kiss her?Look homeward, angelOne thing I must knowDo her empty arms still yearn for me alone?So she'll know how very much I miss herAngel, while she's dreaming, won't you kiss her?Look homeward, angel One thing I must knowDo her empty arms still yearn for me alone?Do her empty arms still yearn for me alone?Do her empty arms still yearn for me alone?
