

Speak to a Girl

Tim McGraw & Faith Hill

She don't give a damn 'bout your Benjamin Franklin's, she wants Aretha
She don't really care how you're spending your money, it's all how you treat her
She just wanna a friend to be there when she opens her eyes in the morning
She wants you to say what you mean and mean everything that you're sayingCause that's how you talk to a woman
That's how you speak to a girl
That's how you get with the lady who's worth more than anything in your whole world
You better respect your mama
Respect the hell out of her
Cause that's how you talk to a woman
And that's how you speak to a girl
She don't give a damn 'bout you're pride or the lies that you're hiding behind
She just wanna feel that you're real, that she's near to the man that's inside
She don't need to hear she's a queen on a throne, that she's more than amazing
She just wants you to say what you mean and to mean everything that you're sayingCause that's how you talk to a woman
That's how you speak to a girl
That's how you get with the lady who's worth more than anything in your whole world
You better respect your mama
Respect the hell out of her
Cause that's how you talk to a woman
That's how you speak to a girlThat's how you speak to, speak to her
That's how you speak to, speak to her
Cause that's how you talk to a woman
That's how you speak to a girl
That's how you get with the lady who's worth more than anything in your whole world
You better respect your mama
Respect the hell out of her
Cause that's how you talk to a woman
And that's how you speak to a girlThat's how you talk to a woman
That's how you speak to a girl
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>