

It Ain't Nothin'

Keith Whitley

My boss is the bosses son
And that makes for a real long day
And when that day is finally done
I'm facin' forty-thousand cars on the interstate Feelin' lower than a well digger's shoes
Knee deep in a mess of blues
But those blues just fade away when I hear my baby say, It ain't nothin' a little bit of love won't fix

It ain't nothin' but a scratch a little bit of love can stitch
It ain't nothin' a little bit of love can't heal
Your love makes me feel,
No matter what (man I've been) these words are not correct
It ain't nothin'
It ain't nothin'

It was written all over her face
She was about to climb the walls
She said you gotta get me out of this place
'Cause even Cinderella got to go to the ball
If you multiply hell times three
That's what this day's been like for me
I said honey we'll do the town

Just don't let it get you down 'Cause it ain't nothin' a little bit of love won't fix
It ain't nothin' but a scratch a little bit of love can stitch
It ain't nothin' a little bit of love can heal
Your love makes me feel,
No matter what man I've been
It ain't nothin'
It ain't nothin'

It ain't nothin' a little bit of love won't fix
It ain't nothin' but a scratch a little bit of love can stitch
It ain't nothin' a little bit of love can heal
Your love makes me feel,
No matter (what man I've been) these words are not correct
It ain't nothin'
It ain't nothin'

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>