

The Way We Are

Tyler Ward

I'm backseat to your freeway
This could never be safe
Cause, I might get lost in you
I'm just a little bit defeated
I've got my reasons
One being you're just passing through
You know I love you but I'm Feeling afraid, you never say
One thing to keep me holding on
You push me away
Why do you lie beside me?
When you never have time
And you're fine without me?
And I, think it's pretty unlikely,
That the words on your mind
Could ever inspire me
To stay and love the way we are x2
Every time you are lonely
Why am I the only one
You come running to
Got me saying that "I love you"
When I know that the truth is
You could trade me for something new
You keep me hanging like you're
So unaware, you're never there you should know better but you don't
And it's never fair
Why, do you lie beside me,
When you never have time
And you're fine without me
And I, think it's pretty unlikely,
That the words on your mind
Could ever inspire me
To stay and love the way we are x2
Somebody wake
Somebody shake me from
The hold she has on me
I'm so afraid
I wanna be saved but what if she lets go of me
Why, do you lie beside me,
When you never have time
And you're fine without me
And I, think it's pretty unlikely,
That the words on your mind
Could ever inspire me
To stay and love the way we are
