

Barriers

David Archuleta

Heey, Mmmm Well I don't know how to say this right
And the words got me choking
I keep hitting this wall
It's never gonna fall
And we're still broken
This mountain we've been trying to climb
It's never ending
Just can't do nothing, gotta do something
Cause if we don't open up our eyes
We're just pretending Well there's a time for giving up
Didn't wanna have to say it
All we're doing is building walls
And now there's too many barriers
Here we are lying here
It's our last final goodnight
Just because it feels so good
No use pretending we're alright
Too many locks (locks), too many crimes (crimes)
Too many tears (tears), too many lies (lies)
Too many barriers (barriers).
Oh, just too many barriers. Now we've been draggin' this whole thing out
But I can't wait any longer.
Our love's burnin' down
Creepin' in the doubt, we're not gettin' any stronger.
I hear you say that we're doin' okay
But, baby, I don't think so.
Just can't do nothin'; gotta do somethin'
'Cause if I don't get into my car
I won't go very far.
Well, there's a time for givin' up.
Didn't wanna have to say it.
All we're doin' is building walls.
Now there's too many barriers.
Here we are, lyin' here.
It's our last final goodnight.
Just because it feels so good
No use pretending we're alright.
Too many locks (locks), too many crimes (cries)
Too many tears (tears), too many lies (lies)
Too many barriers (barriers).
Too many barriers.
Just too many barriers That we keep running into.

Been tryin', but we just can't break through.
I know I'm gonna keep wishin' I was with you
But we just gotta stop...Here we are, lyin' here.
It's our last final goodnight.
Just because it feels so good
No use pretending we're alright.
Too many locks (locks), too many crimes (cries)
Too many tears (tears), too many lies (lies)
Too many lies.
In a hurry to get somewhere
And the road's tryin' to block ya, block ya (too many barriers)
And you feel like you're nowhere
'Cause the world's tryin' to stop ya, stop ya (too many barriers)
In a hurry to get somewhere
And the road's tryin' to block ya, block ya (too many barriers)
And you feel like you're nowhere
'Cause the world's tryin' to stop ya, stop ya (too many barriers)
