

Stand in Awe

Phil Wickham

Who could know your thoughts?
Who could grasp your ways?
Who could match your goodness or deny your grace?
You awake my soul
Captivate my heart
Oh God, how great you are
You command the laws of the universe
Burning bright with glory infinite in worth
With a single word you ignite the stars
Oh God, how great you are
I stand in awe of your
I stand in awe of you
Christ the way
The life
The truth
I stand in awe of you
