

Dread Head Dream

Cas Haley

Dread Head Dream You right -- Uh huh, All right, Uh huh
I fell away from the light
It all started on this dark starry night
I said, Hey Man with a guitar in hand came up to me
I wonder what he do, a beat
Things proceeded to flow
The rhythm and the rhyme bounced my mind thru time
Bounced my mind thru time, yeah I said I looked in close
How really could this be the man that I knew as a poor marley
He didn't know what to do
I said he looked at me, He said listen to you Gotta listen to all he has to say
Gotta listen to all he has to say
Yes you do, Gotta listen to all he has to say
Well you know you do
Alright right, Uh, huh, What you know
Well you know you got to go - Uh, huh Up against a tree the man looked at me
A look in his eye it almost made me cry
The rhythm and the rhyme bounced my mind thru time
Unleashing his flow -- Unleashing my soul Gotta listen to all he has to say
Gotta listen to all he has to say
Yes you do, Gotta listen to all he has to say
Well you know you do [guitar solo] Gotta listen to all he has to say
Gotta listen to all he has to say
Yes you do, Gotta listen to all he has to say
Well you know you do Alright right, Uh, huh, What you know
Well you know you got to go -- Yeah you do
Alright right, Uh, huh, What you know
Well you know you got to go I say, yah, you listen, you listen -- You listen up
I listen, I listen, I listen -- I listen up
You gotta listen up -- You better listen up
