

Shackled

Vertical Horizon

For so long my life's been sewn up tight inside your hold
And it leaves me there without a place to call my own I know now what shadows can see
There's no point in running 'less you run with me
It's half the distance through the open door
Before you cut me down

Again

Let me introduce you to the end And I feel the cold wind blowing beneath my wings

It always leads me back to suffering

But I will soar until the wind whips me down

Leaves me beaten on unholy ground again So tired now of paying my dues

I start out strong but then I always lose

It's half the distance before you leave me behind

It's such a waste of time

Chorus

'Cause my shackles

You won't be

And my rapture

You won't believe

And deep inside you will bleed for me So here I slave inside of a broken dream

Forever holding on to splitting seams

So take your piece and leave me alone to die

I don't need you to keep my faith alive I know now what trouble can be

And why it follows me so easily

It's half the distance through the open door

Before you shut me down

Again

Let me introduce you to the end Chorus

Though you know you care Chorus And my laughter

You won't hear

The faster

I disappear

And time will burn your eyes to tears
