

Two Against One (feat. Jack White)

Danger Mouse & Daniele Luppi

Make no mistake I don't do anything for free
I keep my enemies closer than my mirror ever gets to me
And if you think that there is shelter in this attitude
Wait til you feel the warmth of my gratitude
One, I get the feeling that it's two against one
One, I'm already fighting me, so what's another one?
One, The mirror is a trigger and your mouth's a gun
One, Lucky for me, I'm not the only one.
And if it looks to me like you in your reflection
Plan to add your own fight to this dimension
Then tell it that this ain't no free-for-all to see,
There's only three
It's just you and me against me
One, I get the feeling that it's two against one
One, I'm already fighting me, so what's another one?
One, The mirror is a trigger and your mouth's a gun
One, lucky for me, I'm not the only one
Lucky for me, I'm not the only one
And if your foot's on to sick a thousand "yes men"
Brand or brake into the middle of this little plan
Then there's your plan to hear me say,
That I won't play around the way, anyway
I plan to plan around them.
One, I get the feeling that it's two against one.
One, I'm already fighting me, so what's another one?
One, the mirror is a trigger and your mouth's a gun.
One, lucky for me, I'm not the only one.
Lucky for me, I'm not the only one.
