

Shattered Glass

Britney Spears

Haaaauh haaaauh haaaauh
Haaaaaa huuu
Haaaauh haaaauh haaaauh
Haaaaaaaa'Did I wake you, we're you sleepin', were you still in my bed?
Or is the nightmare keepin' you up instead?
Oh baby, are you feelin' guilty for what you did
If you think you're hurtin', you ain't seen nothin' yetWas it really worth it?
Was she everything, that you were looking for?
Feel like a man
I hope you know that, you can't go back
Cause all we had, is broken like Shattered Glass
You're gonna see me, in your dreams tonight
My face is gonna haunt you all the time
I promise that you gonna want me back
When your world falls apart, like shattered glass
Glass, glass, glassAre you having trouble focusin' throughout the day?
Do you find yourself, still callin' my name?
Do you wish you could rewind time and take it back?
I bet you realize, she ain't half the woman I amWas it really worth it?
Was she everything, that you were looking for?
Feel like a man
I hope you know that, you can't go back
Cause all we had, is broken like Shattered Glass
You're gonna see me, in your dreams tonight
My face is gonna haunt you all the time
I promise that you gonna want me back
When your world falls apart
Like Shattered GlassGlass, glass, glass, glass
Like like . glass (ee ee ee)
Glass, glass, glass
Haaaauh haaaauh haaaauh
Haaaaaa huuu
Haaaauh haaaauh haaaauh
Haaaaaaaa'
