Hypocrisy

Sworn In

This is hypocrisy
Practice what you preach
Practice what you preachThis is hypocrisy
Practice what you preach
Practice what you preachFuck you
You're meaningless to me
You're everything

You told me never to be Sick and twisted, fucked up and ruthless Deranged at worst and at very best useless Save it for hell's gate

Save it for the fucking treason parade

Save it for hell's gate

Save it for the fucking treason parade

I watched my world burn

As you watched with a grin

From the point of no return

Once again, yeah, once again

This sympathy symphony never seems to endNo trust, no, there's no fucking trust

All I've learned is fucked I'll never adjust

Nothing you'll ever do will make this just

Disgust, disgust, disgustKeep burning, ashes to dust

There never was any trust

Laid to rest, dead in the mind

Completely blind, completely blind

Fuel the fire, burn to the ground

And don't you even dare try to fucking turn this around

'cause nothing's left but this silent grin

You will never winI watched my world burn

As you watched with a grin

From the point of no return

Once again, yeah, once again

This sympathy symphony never seems to endNot like you said

You were not just friends

So take your necklace off and put a fucking noose in its place

UUUUUUUUUUUUUAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHH!!!

Fuck!

So sing along with me You'll burn in hell with no sympathy
This is hyprocrisy

Practice what you fucking preach

Practice what you preach Nothing but a useless leech Sucking the world dry with everything you teach
