

Heart of Stone

Maxx

Tell me why oh why
Do you always try to hurt me
I cant stand the pain
I need to break out and be free
Tell me honestly
Why dont you just leave me alone
After all this time
I know now, your hearts of stone
Cant you understand all is said and done
Its all over now, our love is gone
I cant stand the pain, no more love to gain
Everything i gave, it was all in vain
I cant help myself
Im going to lose my mind
Now im on my own
Cause i know your hearts of stone
Tell me why oh why
Do you always try to hurt me
I cant stand the pain
I need to break out and be free
Tell me honestly
Why dont you just leave me alone
After all this time
I know now, your hearts of stone
Cant you understand all is said and done
Its all over now, our love is gone
I cant stand the pain, no more love to gain
Everything i gave, it was all in vain
I cant help myself
Im going to lose my mind
Now im on my own
Cause i know your hearts of stone
Tell me why oh why
Do you always try to hurt me
I cant stand the pain
I need to break out and be free
Tell me honestly
Why dont you just leave me alone
After all this time
I know now, your hearts of stone
Cant you understand all is said and done
Its all over now, our love is gone

I cant stand the pain, no more love to gain
Everything i gave, it was all in vain
I cant help myself
Im going to lose my mind
Now im on my own
Cause i know your hearts of stone
