

XO (feat. Troi Irons)

Lupe Fiasco

You and me, I'm curious to see
Could we be everything you need?
You don't have to go, go, go
We can be alone, alone (yeah, uh), together in this (yeah)She just walks, and talks to the noise in her heads
Safe in the middle but destroys at the edge
Burns up the nest and poisons the eggs
When the sound hits the ground, the tone seems to beg
For the dark, wanna dart but it's too hard to march
When you heart's nailed down to the "start, on your mark"
Then a spark but she parked, too caught up in the blitz
To risk ripping them apart
So she wanna stay
On a high tonight to survive
The eyes pry wide down the manor
Opening the face to be go washed and awash in the glow
Of the faraway souls of downtown Atlanta
My report, a million similar souls
Signaling hoping to be a synonym for now
Put in a pill again when it drowns
When the night comes around
And the sky opens up
And the light comes
Down
Fluorescent
Iridescent
Are you gonna take it all away
Fluorescent
Luminescent
Are you gonna take it all away You and me, ecstasy
X-XO
You and me, ecstasy
XO
'Round and 'round, we can't slow down
Come too far to let go
X-X-XO
You and me, ecstasy
X-XO
You and me, ecstasy
XO
'Round and 'round, we can't slow down
Come too far to let go

She just runs
And comes to the back of the beginning
Which once was the happiness of winning
The killing contrived the inner vibe, tried to fill her in size
But then survived the attack of other feelings
Cracking at the seals life, hacking it, backing it
Something real as the key to the ease of the bees in the ceilings
Fauceting all the things down from the dark clouds
The valve house, canals, the foul, the independents, til it breaks
The surge, tsunamis down advantages, knocking down establishments
Washing out the catalyst of fate
Weight filling the room, moon,
the moon and the wanderlust stuck in downtown Los Angeles
Report! A billion similar souls
Signaling hoping to be a synonym for now
Put in a pill again when it drowns
When the night comes around
And the sky opens up
And the light comes
DownFluorescent
Iridescent
Are you gonna take it all away
Fluorescent
Luminescent
Are you gonna take it all awayYou and me, ecstasy
X-XO
You and me, ecstasy
XO
'Round and 'round, we can't slow down
Come too far to let go
X-X-XOThey're right where I stay
Surround us
And the revend night babe
They found us
Fluorescent
Iridescent
Are you gonna take it all away
Fluorescent
Luminescent
Are you gonna take it all awayThey combed Earth
To seek out a soul to research
Identify the atoms united to make it work
Then wreck it, re-order, re-organize and perfect it
Then let it, forget it, then stepping into the method
Let it shed it's aesthetics into ascetics
State of ethics vetted to better his new genetics
Medics, headed where warfares kinetic
The squares self aware and dares to self edit
And pregnant

Batters, data no longer matters
Platters shatters scatters the fragments all on fanatics Damage, managed to still be able to feel some of the long lost magic of downtown Damascus
Infinity symbol
Similar souls signaling hoping to be a synonym for now
When the night comes around
And the sky opens up and the light comes Down You and me, ecstasy
X-XO
You and me, ecstasy
XO
'Round and 'round, we can't slow down
Come too far to let go
X-X-XO
You and me, ecstasy
X-XO
You and me, ecstasy
XO
'Round and 'round, we can't slow down
Come too far to let go
