

The Past

Korn

You chose to take
From The Past
You want a game
That's built to last
'Cause love without affection
Is hate without the pain
Life is a connection
Seperate from the brain. You chose to take
From The Past. Can't you see the pain in my eyes?
Can't you see the betrayal in disguise?
I can't live with all your lies again.
I can't trust anything even you my friend.
You wanna live
In The Past
You'll do anything
To make your pain last
'Cause love without affection
Is hate without the pain
Life is a connection
Seperate from the brain. You just take
From The Past. Can't you see the pain in my eyes?
Can't you see the betrayal in disguise?
I can't live with all your lies again.
I can't trust anything even you my friend. Run away, go away. [x30]
Can't you see the pain in my eyes?
Can't you see the betrayal in disguise?
I can't live with all your lies again.
I can't trust anything with you my friend. Can't you see the pain in my eyes?
Can't you see the betrayal in disguise?
I can't live with all your lies again.
Is this the end?
