

Westwood Road

Andy Black

Now my mind is thrown away
It's never coming back down
Drank through all the lonely days
With feelings that I drown out On and up but the remedy pulls me back
(Pulls me back)
Wish to god that the memories fade to black
(Fade to black) So I kneel and pray
All my wasted days away
I just wanna find a way back home
Just let go
I'm moving on
All these wasted days away
All I wanted was a way back home
Take me back to that westwood road
Cause I'm moving on
I keep trying to hit rewind
To erase those nights without you
All these lies roll through my mind
Cause they're the weapons I use On and up but the remedy pulls me back
(Pulls me back)
Wish to god that the enemy won't attack
(Won't attack) So I kneel and pray
All my wasted days away
I just wanna find a way back home
Just let go
I'm moving on
All these wasted days away
All I wanted was a way back home
Take me back to that westwood road
Cause I'm moving on
I'm moving on
So I kneel and pray
All my wasted days away
I just wanna find a way back home
Just let go
I'm moving on
All these wasted days away
All I wanted was a way back home
Just let go
So I kneel and pray
All my wasted days away

Just let go
I'm moving on
All these wasted days away
All I wanted was a way back home
Take me back to that westwood road
Cause I'm moving on
I'm moving on
Cause I'm moving on
