

Don't Let It Go to Your Head

Brand Nubian

Don't let it go to your head, no
Don't let it go to your head, no, no, no, no
Now a lot of people think this is easy as it looks
Books and books of rhyme concepts and hooks
Session to session to get thoughts manifested
Stressin' and stressin' to hit the world with a blessin'
Lot of people often ask, "Puba how you
givin' back?"
The way I give back is through the knowledge of my raps
Like a gem, for all my people caught out on a limb
Who be givin' in, caught out on a stem, who don't wanna win
I'm feelin' you, I know you gettin' down like that
But what I'm sayin' dog is let me hold a little somethin' black
I'll hit you back, c'mon dead that, that's the tenth time
I heard that all you know is gimme
I work hard for every penny that I make video and tape
LP and CD, if I fall, you feedin' me?
No dough to spread, always keep a level head
Long as my seeds get fed, it won't go to my head, so
Don't let it go to your head, no
Everybody love a star, when he on top
Don't, don't let it to go your head, no
Nobody comes around when the star start to drop
Don't let it go to your head, no
Strive to help others who help themselves
Don't let it go to your head, no, no, no no
Knowledge of self and good health and wealth
The ladies are datin', no question but you can't tell her that
'Cause subconsciously, we put our hand out
Like I'm that ATM nigga drop me off at chase Earring in the navel like she sexual
She royalty, but the whole loyalty [Incomprehensible]
Get wreck in the kitchen like she were on the cooking channel
And didn't have to eat in the car do'
Goddamn she's a mother to be, I hope they're twins
Give me a whole tribe and be as sexy as Janet
Was on the cover of Vibe, she slick talk, playin' [Incomprehensible]
Well she got a girlfriend that used to tap back when So she always worry a bit just Tell her hold it down ma, I give you high ranks
Sometimes you wild but I guess that's your style
If you lay up in my high rise, will you stay wise?
Will the slave thighs open your eyes, girl
Don't let it go to your head, no
Don't believe those jealous type cats
Don't, don't let it go to your head, no
'Cause I'm the one [Incomprehensible] late night cash
Don't let it go to your head, no
I told you girl my home is my castle

Don't let it go to your head, no no no no no
Understand it won't be no hassleI heard your single on the battle of the beats
It won five nights, I bet you had the time of your life
Workin' so hard and so long, to make a record
Finally to make a song people respectedCollect the dough at a show as you sip the mo'
Now you hittin' the ho, you never hit befo'
Definately, how much better could it get?
Got the leather with the work it, all up in the whipThis is just one single you got, that's really hot
Tomorrow it could bust just like a blood clot
Leave you in the dust with your body to rotAnother party to rock, if it's you or if it's me
It doesn't matter 'cause it just won't stop
Don't let your gray matter pop, 'cause when you release the album
If they don't cop, you gonna get dropped, soDon't let it go to your head, no
'Cause one single don't make you the shit
Don't don't let it go to your head, no
Stay true to who you are don't never forgetDon't let it go to your head, no
Keep your feet on solid ground
Don't let it go to your head, no no no no no
'Cause what goes up, must come down, uhhDon't let it go to your head, no
Don't don't let it go to your head, no
Don't let it go to your head, no
Don't let it go to your head, no no no no no
