

Boomerang

Lyfe Jennings

Sitting here thinking about, all the innocent
People I done hurt in my past relationships
Never felt the slightest bit bad
Til it happened to me
It's funny how we're so quick to laugh, when it's someone else
But then when it happens to us the joke is never as Funny as we all thought it was
'Fore we felt the same thing
And it's true that it's no fun
When the rabbit's got the gun
And you're in love with the one that hurts you most
And they say karma is a
And I say I agree with it
Cause this whole experience has let me know
That breaking a woman's heart
Is like throwing a boomerang
It'll come right back to you again
So remember that when it's happening to you
Don't cry when it gets hard
Cause you threw a boomerang
And it came right back to you again
So remember that when it's happening to you, you
Used to play a lotta games with no conscience
Couple different lovers at once, with no problem
Loved the way it felt to have everyone wanting me
Now I'm siting here tryna be strong but I'm hurting
And the sad part of it all, is I deserve this
This was meant to teach me a lesson, it's working perfectly
Cause it's true that it's no fun
When the rabbit's got the gun
And you're in love with the one that hurts you most
And they say karma is a (is a)
And I say I agree with it
Cause this whole experience has let me know
That breaking a woman's heart
Is like throwing a boomerang
It'll come right back to you again
So remember that when it's happening to you
Don't cry when it gets hard
Cause you threw a boomerang
And it came right back to you again
So remember that when it's happening to you, you

Hell have no fury like, a woman scorned
Heaven won't help you hide, if you break her heart
Try your best to be honest
Try to keep every promise
Cause in the end if it doesn't work out
She don't wanna be friends
Then she goin want revenge
Don't break a woman's (don't break a woman's)
Heart
It's like throwing a boomerang
It'll come right back to you again
So remember that when it's happening to you
Don't cry when it gets hard
Cause you threw a boomerang
And it came right back to you again
So remember that when it's happening to you
Boomerang
Boomerang
Boomerang
Boomerang
Boomerang, Boomerang
