

Bliss

Aiden

I saw the truth, mom's a whore
I saw the mark as she passed through the door
I saw the truth, you're a whore
Distill the scene and don't lie to me no more
So what's killing you?
Is it the demon inside?
Look out you're turning blue
A suffocating lie
You're all I've got
You're all I've got
To wake up she fucks the pain (wipe those tears away)
She wears make-up to hide the shame (wipe those tears away)
Her sanity rides low
And self esteem won't grow
Tonight she'll miss and all she knows
All she knows, all she knows is bliss
So what's killing you?
Is it the demon inside?
Look out you're turning blue
A suffocating lie
You're all I've got
You're all I've got
You're all I've got
Her black eyes filled with the love she wrote
"I'm not insane, I'm sorry I have to go"
These walls are painted red
She put a bullet in her head
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Is all she said
So what's killing you?
Is it the demon inside?
Look out you're turning blue
A suffocating lie
You're all I've got!
You're all I've got!
You're all I've got!
You're all I've got!
You're all I've got!
You're all I've got!
You're all I've got!
