Brighter Than Sunshine

Aqualung

I never understood before.

I never knew what love was for.

My heart was broke, my head was sore What a feeling. Tied up in ancient history,
I didn't believe in destiny.

I look up, you're standing next to me -

What a feeling. What a feeling in my soul -

Love burns brighter than sunshine, Brighter than sunshine.

Let the rain fall. I don't care.

I'm yours, and suddenly you're mine.

Suddenly, you're mine;

And it's brighter than sunshine.

I never saw it happening.

I'd given up and given in.

I just couldn't take the hurt again -

What a feeling. I didn't have the strength to fight.

Suddenly, you seemed so right.

Me and you -

What a feeling. What a feeling in my soul -

Love burns brighter than sunshine.

It's brighter than sunshine.

Let the rain fall, I don't care.

I'm yours, and suddenly you're mine.

Suddenly, you're mine. And it's brighter than the sun.

It's brighter than the sun.

It's brighter than the sun, sunshine.

Love will remain a mystery,

But give me your hand, and you will see.

Your heart is keeping time with me. What a feeling in my soul -

Love burns brighter than sunshine.

It's brighter than sunshine.

Let the rain fall, I don't care.

I'm yours, and suddenly you're mine.

Suddenly, you're mine. I got a feeling in my soul.

Love burns brighter than sunshine,

Brighter than sunshine.

Let the rain fall, I don't care.

I'm yours, and suddenly you're mine.

Suddenly, you're mine. I got a feeling in my soul.

Love burns brighter than sunshine.

It's brighter than sunshine.

Let the rain fall, I don't care.
I'm yours, and suddenly you're mine.
Suddenly, you're mine.
And it's brighter than sunshine.
