

Within Destruction

As I Lay Dying

If music is a mirror revealing the depths of my heart
Then I will write the darkest song
For without forgiveness my soul is lost
All that is hope within destruction comes from YOU for
I have fallen
All that is hope within destruction comes from YOU for I have fallen
Fallen
If music is a mirror revealing the depths of my heart
Then I will write the darkest song
For without forgiveness
My soul is lost
All that is hope within destruction comes from you
Yeah
Yeah
Yeah
For I have fallen
And there is nothing good within me
Yet I've been given life I will never deserve
For without forgiveness
For without forgiveness my soul is lost
All that is hope within destruction
All that is hope within destruction
All that is hope within destruction
All that is hope within destruction
All that this hope
All that this hope
All that this hope
All that this hope
