

Mr. Bojangles

Jerry Jeff Walker

I knew a man bojangles and he danced for you in worn out shoes
silver hair, a ragged shirt and baggy pants the old soft shoe
He jumped so high
he jumped so high
then he'd lightly touched down
Mr bojangles
mr bojangles
mr bojangles
dance

I met him in a cell in new orleans i was down and out
he looked to me to be the eyes of age as he spoke right out
He talked of life
he talked of life
he lightly slapped his leg instead He said the name bojangles and he danced a lick across the cell
he grabbed his pants for a better stance
he jumped so high
he clicked his heels
He let go a laugh
he let go a laugh
shook back his clothes all around Mr bojangles
mr bojangles
mr bojangles
dance

We danced for those at minstrel shows and county fairs throughout the south we spoke in tears of fifteen years how his dog and him they travelled about His dog up and died
he up and died
after twenty years he still grieves

They said i dance now at every chance and honky tonks for drinks and tips
but most the time i spend behind these county bars cause i drinks a bit

He shook his head and as he shook his head

i heard someone ask please

Mr bojangles

mr bojangles

mr bojangles

dance

Mr bojangles

mr bojangles

mr bojangles
