

Warmer In the Winter (feat. Trombone Shorty)

Lindsey Stirling

PJs with fuzzy socks
Ugly sweaters with polka dots
Warm cookies, had my fill
I might have gained a pound or two to help with the chill
Hot cocoa, piping hot
Snuggled up in our favorite spot
Whisper things we shouldn't say
And I don't plan on leaving here til Christmas Day
Windows frosted
Summer's sleeping
But I don't really mind
I know that it's cold outside
The world is bundled up in white
I just need you by my side
'Cause I'm warmer in the winter with you
'Cause I'm warmer in the winter with you
Last year I was on my own
Hibernating in my empty home
Santa didn't even help
I left a plate of cookies
But I ate them myself
This year feels so brand new
Tie a ribbon around me and you
Santa is checking twice
He's trying to figure out if we're naughty or nice
Roads are closed
Snow is falling
But I don't really mind
I know that it's cold outside
The world is bundled up in white
I just need you by my side
'Cause I'm warmer in the winter with you
I know that it's cold outside
The world is bundled up in white
I just need you by my side
'Cause I'm warmer in the winter with you
The temperature is toasty for two
I'm warmer in the winter with you

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>