Warmer In the Winter (feat. Trombone Shorty)

Lindsey Stirling

PJs with fuzzy socks Ugly sweaters with polka dots Warm cookies, had my fill I might have gained a pound or two to help with the chill Hot cocoa, piping hot

Snuggled up in our favorite spot

Whisper things we shouldn't say

And I don't plan on leaving here til Christmas DayWindows frosted Summer's sleeping

But I don't really mindI know that it's cold outside

The world is bundled up in white

I just need you by my side

'Cause I'm warmer in the winter with you

'Cause I'm warmer in the winter with youLast year I was on my own

Hibernating in my empty home

Santa didn't even help

I left a plate of cookies

But I ate them myself

This year feels so brand new

Tie a ribbon around me and you

Santa is checking twice

He's trying to figure out if we're naughty or niceRoads are closed Snow is falling

But I don't really mindI know that it's cold outside

The world is bundled up in white

I just need you by my side

'Cause I'm warmer in the winter with you

I know that it's cold outside

The world is bundled up in white

I just need you by my side

'Cause I'm warmer in the winter with you

The temperature is toasty for two

I'm warmer in the winter with you

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/