

National Movie Review

Deltron 3030

We interrupt this broadcast to bring you this special message:

How's it going, eh?

Today's movie on the universal national network is a classic.

Starring the two comedic geniuses of North American cinema from the 20th century - Bob and Doug McKenzie.

Entitled "Strange Brew", it chronicles the heroic adventures of two latter day renaissance men, or to use the correct 20th century terminology - hosers.

We give it 3 thumbs up.
