

Bye, Bye Baby

Janis Joplin

Bye, bye baby, bye bye
I may be seeing you around
When I change my living standard
And I move uptown
Bye bye baby, bye bye So long my honey, so long
Lord, I might have been your wife
But you settled for a place
Right here in my heart
You didn't want a place in my life
I know that you got things to do and places to be
And I guess I'll have to find the thing you placed on me
I may wind up in the street or sleep beneath a tree
Still I guess you know, honey I've gotta go I get the feeling I could chase you clean on in the ball
And wind up staying pull off, put down strung out and stalled
Honey, I ain't got time to wait on you or to fetch your super-ball
I've got lots of things I've got to do
Bye, bye baby, bye bye
I guess you know you're on your own
It seems you just got lost somewhere
Out in the world
And you left me here to face it all alone You left me here to face it all alone
You left me here to face it all alone, yeah
Bye, bye baby, baby bye bye
