

Push

Sarah McLachlan

Everytime i look at you the world just melts away
All my troubles, all my fears dissolve in your affections
You see me at my weakest but you take me as i am
And when i fall you offer me a softer place to land
You stay the course, you hold the line you keep it all together
You're the one true thing i know i can believe in
You're all the things that i desire you save me, you complete me
You're the one true thing i know i can believe
I get mad so easy but you give me room to breathe
No matter what i say or do 'cause you're too good to fight about it
Even when i have to push just to see how far you'll go
You wont stoop down to battle but you'll never turn to go
You stay the course, you hold the line you keep it all together
You're the one true thing i know i can believe in
You're all the things that i desire you save me, you complete me
You're the one true thing i know i can believe
Your love is just the antidote when nothing else will cure me
There are times I can't decide when I can't tell up from down
You make me feel less crazy when otherwise I'd drown
But you pick me up and brush me off and tell me I'm OK
Sometimes that's just what we need to get us through the day
You stay the course, you hold the line you keep it all together
You're the one true thing i know i can believe in
You're all the things that i desire you save me, you complete me
You're the one true thing i know i can believe
You stay the course, you hold the line you keep it all together
You're the one true thing i know i can believe in
