

Maybe So, Maybe No

Mayer Hawthorne

Ooohhh...

Maybe so, maybe no Could it be that your love was meant for me

Maybe so, maybe no

Could it be that your love was meant for me

Maybe so, maybe no I don't know what lead me to your love,

Was it faith or destiny

Oh, either angels from above

Smiling down on you and me

La la laaaaa la la laaaaa la la la la la

Like birds of a feather

Here we are together Could it be that your love was meant for me

Maybe so, maybe no

Could it be that your love was meant for me

Maybe so, maybe no Why does time go by so fast now

When I'm here with you

Don't know why minutes seem like hours

When I'm away from you La la laaaaa la la laaaaa la la la la la

I'm not sure if it's really real now

Is it a dream or maybe a game

All I know since I lost you girl

My life hasn't been the same Now everyday we grow closer together
