Well I think the time has come to tell you how I feel about everything that's been inside my mind since the day we crossed the line into this real life fantasy Cause I've poured my heart into the last three years of wondering what I should do should I cash this check and trade in what I thought I knew Your promises don't help to make it easier Because the last thing that I need is somebody like you
to push me around and tell me what to do I know there's a time and a place where you can call the shots but it's not here Cause I've poured my heart into the last three years of wondering what I should do
should I cash this check and trade in what I thought I knew Your promises don't help to make it easier Because the last thing that I need is somebody like
you
I know there's a time and a place where you can call the shots but it's not here Cause I think this whole life is just overrated this whole life is too complicated this whole life is just overrated now this whole life is just overrated
this whole life is just overrated now I don't remember what you said to me that night so I just sign the dotted line Cause now I find out this whole life is just overrated
this whole life is too complicated
this whole life is just overrated now this whole life is just overrated
this whole life is just overrated now
