

The Usual

Sam Fischer

Saw this coming, in a vision all a sudden
On the sofa, watchin' re-runs of Friends
Wish my life was like on TV, everything would be so easy
But it's not, man
You and I will be together

It's late at night, say never
And a music it will play out on repeat
But I saw this in a vision
I was warned, but I don't listen
Now I found myself back at the start again
I can't believe I'm lettin' go
It's only for the best, you know
This is just the usual, the usual for me
Now baby, don't feel bad at all
I know you'll take it personal
But this is just the usual, the usual for me
Now don't text me, don't try
It's not worth it, I won't lie

There's better ways to waste your time tonight
I know it's not original, it's only for the best you know
This is just the usual, the usual for me
Am I love drunk?
In my head, I feel so fucked up
Like I can't hold my liquor anymore
I hope I'm not hungover
When I wake up and we're over
And I find myself back at the start again
I can't believe I'm lettin' go
It's only for the best, you know
This is just the usual, the usual for me
Now baby, don't feel bad at all
I know you'll take it personal
But this is just the usual, the usual for me
Now don't text me, don't try
It's not worth it, I won't lie

There's better ways to waste your time tonight
I know it's not original, it's only for the best you know
This is just the usual, the usual for me
And I said to myself, a couple months ago
That this time it'll be different
But man, I should have known
That I would mess this up
The best I've ever had

And just when I got used to thinking, this time it'll last
I can't believe I'm lettin' go
It's only for the best, you know
This is just the usual, the usual for me
Now baby, don't feel bad at all

I know you'll take it personal
This is just the usual, the usual for me And now don't text me, don't try
It's not worth it, I won't lie
There's better ways to waste your time tonight
I know it's not original, it's only for the best you know
This is just the usual, the usual for me
