Falls Apart

Thousand Foot Krutch

It falls apart from the very start It falls apart Falls apartEverything around me falls apart It falls apart from the very start It falls apart Seems like everything I touch Falls apartEverything around me falls apart When I walk away from you I wish I could, but I don't always keep the promises I've kept I wish I could, but I can't always give, whatever I have left And now its all so clear doesn't anyone see whats happening here? It falls, apartfrom the very start It falls apart seems like everything I touchFalls apart Everything around me falls apart When I walk away from you When I walk away from you I know I should, but I don't always say what you want me to say I know I could, but I don't always act like everything's ok And now its all so clear doesnt anyone see whats happening here? It falls, apart from the very start It falls apart Seems like everything I touch falls apart Everything around me falls apartWhen I walk away from you When I walk away from you When I walk away from Everything I have ever been made of hates who I am

I'm so glad you waited can't get my mind off how you could love me I'm so behindyou're so far above me and you'll always be the wind under my wings above me and you'll always be the wind under my wings above meI will not let it go to waste I'm takin all I got and leavin' this place and I will not let it go to waste I'm takin all I got and leavin' this place and I will not, be takin' up space I'll take my best shot I'm pickin up the pace and It falls, apart from the very start It falls apart seems like everything I touch falls apart Everything around me falls apart When I walk away from you It falls apart from the very start It falls apart seems like everything I touch Falls apart, everything around me falls apart When I walk away from you When I walk away from you When I walk away from You
