Siberia

Backstreet Boys

When you come back I won't be here She said and gently pulled me near If you want to talk you can call And no it's not your faultI just smiled and said let go of me But there's something that I've just gotta know Did someone else steal my part? She said it's not my faultThen my heart did time in Siberia Was waiting for the lie to come true 'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious When the one you want doesn't want you tooI was drifted in between Like I was on the outside looking in, yeah yeah In my dreams you are still here Like you've always been Oh yeah, my heart did time in Siberia Was waiting for the lie to come true 'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious When the one you want doesn't want you tool gave myself away completely But you just couldn't see me Though I was sleeping in your bed 'Cause someone else was on your mind

Though I was sleeping in your bed
'Cause someone else was on your mind
In your headWhen I came back she wasn't there
Just a note left on the stairs
If you want to talk give me a callMy heart did time in Siberia
Was waiting for the lie to come true

Was waiting for the lie to come true
'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious
When the one you want doesn't want you too
When the one that you want doesn't want you
My heart did time in Siberia

Was waiting for the lie to come true
'Cause it's all so dark and mysterious
When the one you want doesn't want you tooSiberia, Siberia

When the one you want doesn't want you too
