

Catch Me (feat. Naaz)

Yellow Claw & Flux Pavilion

Hey, you never had your head this way
Are you still living in the place?
They told me you'd been doing okay, okay
In another world where you and me
We show our hearts, yeah entirely
Deliver me from reality
And take me to my fantasy
Tell me we can make this real
If we can follow what we feel
I'm running, but I've reached the edge
And now I'm falling, so promise that you'll catch me
Promise that you'll catch me
Dreams forever in my head it seems
I finally know what they mean
I promise that one day you'll see, you'll see
In another world where you and me
We show our hearts, yeah entirely
Deliver me from reality
And take me to my fantasy
Tell me we can make this real
If we can follow what we feel
I'm running, but I've reached the edge
And now I'm falling, so promise that you'll catch me
Promise that you'll catch me
Promise that you'll catch me
