

Gaze

Play Dead

Alone he sits in an unknown place danger comes to bring a smile complex searching his complex served him to smash your image smash your stylelife's hard in the shadow of words more complicated is when you're running no time no time no time to gazevision fades on neutral screen no release for marshall cummings tears shower into my hands there's no stops in what I'm becoming life's hard in the shadow of words
no time no time no time to gaze Room is bought for screaming fair I reconsider my position I dream of colours - the man who's seen such hard ways to revive a conditionlife's hard in the shadow of words more complicated is when you're running
