

Everybody Needs to Be in Love

The Spook School

Sometimes i feel a bit lonely and tv and books all tell me it's because i'm not in love with somebody and i've got a void deep inside meEverybody needs to be in love it seems like i have to spend my life trying to fill this hole inside my heartI remember when i first met you the excitement built up inside me I thought that you might be my somebody we'd fall in love and i'd always be happyI'm not so sure i really think we need true love I think i'd rather have you as a friend is that so wrong?
You've been reading over every letter and you say you'll never get better but it's okay not to be in love
