The Black Velvet Band

The High Kings

In a neat little town they call Belfast Apprenticed to trade I was bound Oh many an hour's sweet happiness Have I spent in that neat little townBut a sad misfortune came over me Which caused me to stray from the land Far away from my friends and relations Betrayed by the black velvet bandChorus (after each verse): Her eyes, they shone like diamonds I thought her the queen of the land And her hair, it hung over her shoulder Tied up with a black velvet band I took a stroll down Broadway Oh meaning not long for to stay When who should I meet but this pretty fair maid Come a-traipsing along the highwayShe was both fair and handsome Her neck, it was just like a swan's And her hair, it hung over her shoulder Tied up with a black velvet band(Chorus)So I took a stroll with this pretty fair maid And a gentleman, passing us by Oh I knew that she meant the undoing of him By the look in her roguish black eyeA gold watch she took from his pocket And slipped it right into my hand And the very first thing that I said was "Bad cess to the black velvet band" (Chorus)Seven long years' penal servitude I spent down in Van Dieman's Land Far away from my friends and relations Betrayed by the black velvet band(Chorus 2x) 1
