

Luna

10 Years

I spoke too soon
But you hung the moon and don't even have a clue
Bright eyes stay tucked away
Deep inside your golden age
Safe to (as)sume your golden age
Safe to (as)sume of you? A little roll, a little sway, to navigate through your maze of love and pain
We bond and break through love and pain
We bond and break
So rain down on my head
When the sky cracks open
And your pain comes, let the blood run through my lungs
When the rain comes, I'll be the sun
When the rain comes So now I see you're free from me
I wait patiently
For you to breathe
So rain down on my head
When the sky cracks open
And your pain comes, let the blood run trough my lungs
When the rain comes, I'll be the sun
When the rain comes
