

Gravity of You

Starset

There's a silencing as the machine arrives here
I feel it pulling me
I feel the past that's died here
I hear it calling me
"You can come alive here."
I hear it beckoning
Until I am inside. Riding the horizon
Falling into you
Feel the vessel tighten
I feel you pull me through
A new world is breaking
Your heart is unveiling
Breaking into pieces
In the gravity of you
In the gravity of you
I see the empty dreams race across the sky here
I see energy streams where the ashes lie here
I feel you here with me when all the hope has died here
It's boring holes in me enough to get inside. Riding the horizon
Falling into you
Feel the vessel tighten
I feel you pull me through
A new world is breaking
Your heart is unveiling
Breaking into pieces
In the gravity of you
In the gravity of you
To fall in the star is to be nothingness
To escape is to be empty.
Fall into the star and then we won't exist
Or escape into the nothing. To fall in the star is to be nothingness
To escape is to be empty.
Fall into the star and then we won't exist
Or escape into the nothing. Your sky
The beauty alone is worth it
I will risk it all to own it. Riding the horizon
Falling into you

Feel the vessel tighten
I feel you pull me through
A new world is breaking
Breaking into pieces
In the gravity of you
