

Hypnotizing (feat. Hayden Panettiere)

Nashville Cast

You must've hit me when I wasn't looking Woke up dizzy, I can't remember nothing
Oh, but those sweet blue eyes
I'm seeing flashbacks dancing in my mind
The way you kiss me as sweet as summertime
And I don't stand a chance
'Cause boy I was rolling the second you walked in the room
This night you come and put a spell on me
You shook my world apart and suddenly
I'm helpless, reckless, so baby I lost my mind
And tonight your love is hypnotizing
Hypnotizing
The way you touch me, boy you send me flying
The way you move me is electrifying
Oh, rushing through my veins
I try to fight it but I'm powerless
I'm no match for what I'm up against
But I keep giving in
And I don't have a prayer but honey I don't even care
This night you come and put a spell on me
You shook my world apart and suddenly
I'm helpless, reckless, so baby I lost my mind
And tonight your love is hypnotizing
Hypnotizing
This night you come and put a spell on me
You shook my world apart and suddenly
I'm helpless, reckless, so baby I lost my mind
And tonight your love is hypnotizing
Hypnotizing Your love is hypnotizing
Hypnotizing
