

Fuel My Fire

L7

I've got a word of thanks
Thanks that I'd like to say
For the rage that I feel
For the rage that I feel today Gotta stack, gotta stack
Stack of chips on my shoulder
In everything I do, 'cause I made, I made, I made
The mistake the mistake of trusting you People like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel Yeah my layers are thick
And I got a bad attitude
Yeah that knife in my back
Has fingerprints that belong to you
Gotta grudge gotta grudge gotta grudge
That I'm holding for as long as I live
'Cause you lied, you lied, you lied
And that's something that I can't forgive People like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel my fire
Oh, people like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel Liar, liar, liar, liar, liar People like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel my fire
Oh, people like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel Liar, liar, you liar, you liar, liar
People like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel my fire
People like you just fuel
