

Laura

PHOX

Oh girl, what are you doing there?
you're cutting off all your hair?
Oh girl, what did they do to you?
what did they take from you that you can never get back? Laura, Laura You can grow up. Oh girl, what would you die for?
No, what would you die for?
Oh girl, you're crying out in your room
wanting to shoot the moon
because you will never go far. Laura, Laura You can grow up.
You can try and hide away
from all the things that people say that you need to be ok
but you'll just stay the same
