

Hollow Tune

Brick + Mortar

Not born a fool, But I've found my door.
Heard from the dead, when I was born.
My weakened bones and my blood shot eyes.
A one way street to nowhere. Neon lights so soft like blankets,
seen you smile in a secret language.
Love i know is like the ocean. A hollow tune, within the fire.
I feel them breathe, so uninspired.
My broken hands my weary bones,
I sit my words beside my throne.
You're not alone. I'm not alone.
Can you hear me thunder?
You're not alone.
I'm lost again, but i'm still alive.
Your broken heart I sacrificed.
I'm sorry for all that I've done,
To find my voice;
I'm someone. Neon lights so soft like blankets,
seen you smile in a secret language.
Love i know is like the ocean. A hollow tune, within the fire.
I feel them breathe, so uninspired.
My broken hands my weary bones,
I sit my words beside my throne.
You're not alone. I'm not alone.
Can you hear me thunder?
You're not alone. Forever! Forever now we can live! Tell me when we can talk again.
Show me,
are you real or are you just pretend?
Neon lights so soft like blankets,
seen you smile in a secret language.
Love i know is like the ocean. A hollow tune, within the fire.
I feel them breathe, so uninspired.
My broken hands my weary bones,
I sit my words beside my throne.
You're not alone. I'm not alone.
Can you hear me thunder?
You're not alone.
