

Blind Heart (Carlos Gallardo Remix)

Cazzette

You got me strung up like a puppet,
Hung up on a thin, red line.
You got me caught up in your loving,
Stuck here in my love sick mind. And I've been trying to pick myself up off the floor.
And I'd be lying say I don't want you anymore. You got my blind heart holdin onto you.
And I don't where it's going,
Or what it will do.
And I try to control it,
But control is what I lose.
You got my blind heart holdin onto you.
Just let it be (Just let it be) You've got my blind heart holdin onto you. (You got my blind heart, yeah) You got my blind heart holdin onto you.
I'm in pieces like a puzzle,
Scattered all around this room.
I need to put this back together,
You twisted up my point of view. And I've been trying to pick myself up from the floor.
And I'd be lying say'n' I don't want you anymore. You got my blind heart holdin onto you.
And I don't where it's going,
Or what it will do.
And I try to control it,
But control is what I lose.
You got my blind heart holdin onto you. Oh oh, I don't know, oh Oh oh, I don't know-ow-ow
You got my blind heart holdin onto you.
And I don't where it's going,
Or what it will do.
And I try to control it,
But control is what I lose.
You got my blind heart holdin onto you. (Oooooohhh)
