

Bluebird Wine

Emmylou Harris & Rodney Crowell

(Rodney Crowell)Baby brought me in out off the highway

Made me put my money in the bank, bank

Straightened out my crooked way of thinking

Made it purely pleasure when I drank.And It's all right

I've just hit my stride

Right off the bat

Lord, I'm drunk on Bluebird Wine.

Baby taught me a diff'rent way of thinkin'

Like how to spend my evenings here at home

List'ning to the music on the radio

Drinking all the Bluebird we can hold.And It's all right

I've just hit my stride

Right off the bat

Lord, I'm drunk on Bluebird Wine.Baby says he'd really love a party

We'll get some friends together feelin' fine

Any friend of mine is worth his habit

A belly full of baby's Bluebird Wine.

And It's all right

I've just hit my stride

Right off the bat

Lord, I'm drunk on Bluebird Wine...
