

Vices (feat. Derez Deshon & K CAMP)

Sy Ari Da Kid

The filament fades thoughts decay
Spinning around in place keeping me
Slightly out of my own reach
Never awake never asleep forever
Together alone swallowed in a sea of indigo
Lay down, let your body sleep
Safe and sound
Insomnia flee from the light of the day
Insomnia so far from the weight of gravity
Insomnia sweet surrender to the grave
Measuring my amnesia by the age of my memories
Fading further into fantasy
Nothing to gain, nothing to lose
Saving my wasted youth
Falling further from the physical
Lay down, let your body sleep
Safe and sound
Insomnia flee from the light of the day
Insomnia so far from the weight of gravity
Insomnia sweet surrender to the grave
Spinning around in place
Keeping me out of reach
Heavy's the head of guilt
Hollow's the heart of doubt
Spinning around in place
Keeping me out of reach
Heavy's the head of guilt
Hollow's the heart of doubt
Insomnia flee from the light of the day
Insomnia so far from the weight of gravity
Insomnia sweet surrender to the grave
