

As You're Falling Down

Escape the Fate

As you're falling down (falling down!)
(as you're falling down!)
my heart beats the same (beats the same!)
and the tears now (tears now)
(and the tears now)
run down your face...If you had class you'd throw down with me
drown in your fake personality
shattered glass and frames (shattered glass and frames!)
snapshots of reality
burned pictures and memories
your heart's cold and grey to whom it may concern (you stayed the same, you stayed the same, you stayed the same)
i'm the same
and all that i've learned
(you stayed the same, you stayed the same, you stayed the same)
has faded away...
Can you tell me
(all the lies that you have said)
all the lies that you have said
so keep on lying (just keep on lying to me)
i find less beauty in life than death (life the death!)
If you had class you'd throw down with me
drown in your fake personality
shattered glass and frames (shattered glass and frames!)
snapshots of reality burned pictures and memories
your heart's cold and grey
to whom it may concern
(you stayed the same, you stayed the same, you stayed the same)
i'm the same
and all that i've learned
(you stayed the same, you stayed the same, you stayed the same) has faded away...
(away!)
(i know that) the blood still stains
(and now i) don't feel the same
As you're falling down (falling down!)
(as you're falling down!) My heart beats the same
And the tears now (tears now)
(and the tears now)
Run down your face To whom it may concern
(you stayed the same, you stayed the same, you stayed the same)
i'm the same
and all that i've learned

(you stayed the same, you stayed the same, you stayed the same)
has faded away...
To whom it may concern
i'm the same
and all that i've learned
has faded away...
(away!)
