

Get Innocuous!

LCD Soundsystem

Home- home in the late-night and away- away in the half-life except Saturday- crushed by the boring until played and plagued again by the tourists When once you had believed it now you see it's sucking you in To string you along with the pretense and pave the way for the coming release Alone and prone in the half-light and late- late to the real-life if you find a way into the gold rush you will stay until the morning comes You can normalize don't it make you feel alive
Get innocuous!
