

Higher

Ally Brooke & Matoma

Oh the wind has been singing me a symphony
The sweetest sound that I've ever heard
Feels amazing the way that it's been lifting me
I'm free up here, as high as a bird
A moment, no, you don't need to cry for me
I can't wait to get where I'm going
You know that I'd love to stay
But I'm already on my way 'Cause my love's taking me
Higher, higher, higher
Look up, you'll see me
Higher, higher, higher
And I know I'm getting close now
I can hear the choir
Yes, my love's taking me
Higher, higher, higher
There's a notion of gratitude inside of me
And the waves wash clean my soul (clean my soul)
And I could stay here forever quite happily
These dreams are made of gold
I thank everyone that has ever prayed for me
You gave me my wings (you gave me my wings)
You know that I'd love to stay
But I'm already on my way 'Cause my love's taking me
Higher, higher, higher
Look up, you'll see me
Higher, higher, higher
And I know I'm getting close now
I can hear the choir
Yes, my love's taking me
Higher, higher, higher
And the day I'm gone
And the day I'm gone
When you play this song
When you play this song
From a bird's eye view
From a bird's eye view
I'll look after you
I'll look after you 'Cause my love's taking me
Higher, higher, higher
Look up, you'll see me
Higher, higher, higher (higher)
And I know I'm getting close now
I can hear the choir
Yes, my love's taking me (taking me)

Higher, higher, higher (higher)(Higher, higher)
Higher
